

Bitterness Journal with Saint, Sufferer, Sinner

Directions: Answer these journal questions about how you view YOURSELF:

1. Saint: How is God using this situation?

- How is God using this situation to grow you in personal holiness?
- How is God using this situation to make you draw closer to him?
- The two greatest commands lead to two great questions: how are you loving God and your neighbor?
- How are you experiencing the love of God even in the midst of the hurt you feel?

2. Sufferer: How are you experiencing brokenness in this situation?

- How have you been hurt emotionally?
- How are you suffering physically?
- What losses do you need to grieve?
- What injustice do you need to allow to anger you?
- How are people you love affected by the hurt this person has caused?

3. Sinner: What is the Holy Spirit putting his finger on in your heart to repent of?

- What thoughts toward the other person have been bitter, judgmental, or harsh?
- What behaviors have been unloving?
- What language has been dishonoring, shaming or hurtful?
- What attitudes towards God or other people have been cold, dishonoring, or judgmental?

© 2023 Alex Kocher and Brenda Payne. The information presented on this training is for the enjoyment of all. It is not intended as either medical advice or counseling, nor is it specific to any particular individual. It is not intended to replace counseling, medical care or professional advice. Please contact 911 if you are having an emergency.

Directions: Answer these questions about how you view the PERSON WHO HAS OFFENDED YOU.

1. Saint: How is God using this situation?

- How is God using this situation to grow the other person in holiness? If you can't see the evidence, stop and pray for it.
- How is God using this situation to make the other person draw closer to Him? If you can't see the evidence, stop and pray for it.
- The two greatest commands lead to two great questions: how is he/she loving God and his/her neighbor?
- Ask the Lord to allow the other person to experience the love of God even in the midst of the hurt they caused

2. Sufferer: How has the other person experienced brokenness?

- How has he/she been hurt emotionally?
- How has he/she suffered physically?
- How has he/she suffered spiritually?
- What losses can you ask the Spirit to comfort them in?
- What injustices can you ask the Spirit to avenge for them?
- How are people they love affected by the hurt this person has caused?

3. Sinner: Ask the Holy Spirit to put His finger on his/her heart in areas that need repentance:

- Thoughts
- Behaviors
- Language
- Attitudes